.. 33. Agra (film) – Agra is a 1982 Indian Bollywood film directed by R. Balkissoon, starring Rajesh Khanna, Jackie Shroff, and Rati Agnihotri. R. Khanna plays the role of an aged person who meets Shroff's character for the first time. The film received positive reviews and is remembered for Rati Agnihotri's lip sync to the song Agra Kya Hai. The film is a remake of the 1958 Bengali film Jiboner Thikana. Khanna initially refused to accept the role, since he felt he was already too old. Rajesh Khanna and Rati Agnihotri started dating and were to get married at the time of the shooting. Her original name was Rati Kumari Das, but changed it to Agnihotri after she got married. She agreed to play the lead only after Rajesh Khanna changed his mind. In the lead role was Naseeruddin Shah who was ill at the time and the part was given to him by Khanna, Khanna recommended Salim-Javed to do the dialogue work. This was the first time that the S-J tandem were to go on a film together, on 5 August 1982, the producers announced that the film would be made with a budget of 2.5 million. However, by the time of the film's release, it had cost 4.2 million, in September 1982, production took place in Hyderabad at the Vasudev Studios. The film's music was scored by Rajesh Roshan and Lyrics by Majrooh Sultanpuri. Apart from this, the score is by composer, it is based on the story of a person who wanders away from his house and his life. The only song that is common in both movies is the song Agra kya Hai, the other songs are different. Agra Kya Hai – Rajesh Khanna and Rati Agnihotri lip sync, the song Agra kya Hai was initially shot as an item song featuring Khanna and Naseeruddin Shah. The song was then re-shot as a duet between Khanna and Rati Agnihotri, in the song, Naseeruddin Shah is shown to be older than the character he portrays in the film. I wonder, the other day he got ill, and I looked at him and I said, N 82157476af
